

Foot Notes: Telling Stories of Girls Soccer

Foot Notes: Telling Stories of Girls Soccer reflects on 35 years coaching girls and womens soccer. The book is a bit of memoir, a bit of guidebook, a smattering of literary commentary, a dose of nostalgia and confessional, sprinkled with some sports journalism. Foot Notes is a tribute to soccer players and coaches, an appreciation of the game itself, its endemic and unnoticed presence, and the grass and gravel its played upon. Its a book about teaching and learning from players and teams. Mostly its a love story, a gift to your granddaughters. Foot Notes urges attentive listening to others stories as it shapes, shares, and cherishes stories of girls in soccer. In this year when Canada hosts the Women's World Cup, join Laurie Ricou in his celebration of the beautiful game.
