

Carenzas Journey

Carenza Dodds, on the cusp of her teenage years, is evacuated from her deprived existence in the East End of London and thrust into the rural environment of Worcestershire due to the outbreak of war in 1939. Her family is tragically killed in the Blitz leaving her an orphan. Her experiences at the hands of the families with whom she is forced to live leave her feeling insecure. She has nobody to turn to until circumstances place her in the path of the indomitable May Faithful who is the former head teacher in the village of Nether Heydon. Mays influence on her life leads her on a remarkable journey which takes her far from her roots of poverty and the influence of a dysfunctional family into a more promising future. Debut novelist Felicity Knights novel Carenzas Journey started out as a self-published e-book but has now been published by Austin Macauley. The initial setting is the impoverished East End of London at the outbreak of World War II but moves to rural Worcestershire following the evacuation of the novels heroine Carenza Dodds. Carenzas destiny is shaped by the redoubtable female village Headmistress, May Faithful. The novel charts her remarkable life journey with its many twists and turns, including some surprises and tragedies, which keeps the reader absorbed throughout.

Carenza Dodds is one of many born to poverty and depression in the East End of London. Her mother wants more for her and gives her an exotic name in the Title: Carenzas Journey Item Condition: used item in a very good condition. Author: Felicity Knight ISBN 10: 1849634475.
