

Miscarriage Of Justice

Masterful Page-Turner The justice system is just a system, not a just system. Sentenced to fifteen years in prison for a crime he didnt commit, Ethan Rafferty has one thing on his mind - payback! With his time up, the ex-con is free to pursue his mission of revenge. During the trial, the District Attorney, Mariana Clark, suppressed evidence that wouldve exonerated him and now is the focus of Ethans vengeance. Intent on making her life a living hell, he works daily to antagonize and torment the woman. Unable to retaliate through the courts, considering the role she played, Mariana chooses to fight fire with fire. Soon, their feud escalates to a point where neither imagined it would go. Which one will prevail, Ethan or Mariana? Can either? Or, are both of them bound to a destiny produced by a Miscarriage of Justice? You will never look at the court system the same again! Loved the twist at the end. I was beginning to doubt peoples honor. Order your copy today!
